

MINERALS INDUSTRY STUDENT RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS

The Australasian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, New Zealand Branch has established the Education Endowment Trust. One of its purposes is to assist students studying in fields related to minerals, mining and petroleum.

The Trust is now inviting applications for a number of scholarships to be awarded in 2009 to students undertaking research in 2010 in geology, engineering or the environment that is related to the minerals and petroleum industries. The value of the scholarships has been increased to $5,000, and this rate will apply in 2010.

Value $5,000
